Hughes Unit battle to go to court

THE decision by Dorset Healthcare Trust (DHT) to close a mental health unit in Bridport Community Hospital is being challenged in court.

Solicitors acting on behalf of former patient Ros Copson – who opposes the closure – are calling for a judicial review of the plan to axe the unit, arguing that NHS chiefs did not follow their own guidelines when coming to their decision and that patients will suffer as a result of the closure.

If Scott-Moncrieff and Associates' (SM&A) bid is successful a judge has the power to demand DHT keep the unit open while its future is looked at again.

The facility at the centre of the storm is the Hughes Unit in Bridport's community hospital in North Allington. The facility currently has seven beds offering patients around the clock psychiatric care including overnight stays.

Under current plans the beds are due to be replaced

by Chris Denne
chris@pemedial.co.uk

with what DCT call "increased provision of crisis response and home treatment services to operate 24 hours a day, seven days a week."

DHT also point to a Recovery Respite House being operated out of Blandford, a respite flat in Weymouth, and a further Recovery House planned, also in Weymouth.

A DHT spokesman added: "NHS Dorset is considering the development of further Recovery Houses across Dorset, Bournemouth and Poole over time. This will be based around identified need within communities."

However Ms Copson who instructed SM&A to challenge the decision to close the unit – believes patients in Bridport needing overnight care could be left stranded with nowhere to stay under the plans.

She said: "We are extremely worried that the only in-patient facility will be three miles north of Dorchester or in Weymouth. It will be very hard for patients and carers to travel to and from the hospital. The trust has not solved the travel problem."

"We were told there would be three crisis houses to replace the inpatient beds. Now it's just one."

"No details are given about this provision. They agreed the beds would not close until the new crisis houses were up and running for several months. Now they say the beds will close next spring and the crisis house will not open until then. Where do we stand?"

She added: "For them even to consider closing the unit is unbelievable. It is a vital resource."

A DHT spokesman defended its policy, saying: "Recovery Houses are viewed as enhancing the choice of services available to people and not simply as a replacement for beds."

He added: "The Recovery House works in partnership with staff from home treatment to deliver care and treatment to residents, ensuring people receive care appropriate to their needs." ■ CONTINUED ON PAGE 3

The Funeral Service will be held at St. Michael's Church, Lyme Regis on Wednesday 3rd October at 1.00pm followed by interment at Lyme Regis Cemetery. Family flowers only please but donations, if desired, for The Weldmar Hospicecare Trust may be given at the Service or sent c/o W. G. Potter Funeral Directors, William Potter House, 5 West Street, Axminster EX13 5NX.

TAE kwon-do instructor Gerry Waugh teaches in Charmouth and Bridport, as well as across the Devon border in Axminster and Sidmouth. Having grown up in Scotland, he moved to Devon in the 1980s.

He trained in the martial art at local classes and became a full-time instructor last year. Gerry is married to wife Vanessa, who helps with the admin side of his classes, and they have a 21-year-old son, Robbie, who is currently at university.

■ HOW did you become interested in tae kwon-do? I had dabbled in other martial arts, first judo as a young child and then karate as a teenager, but I didn't stick with them. I discovered tae kwon-do at a TAGB demo in Honiton in the 1990s.

My son enrolled in classes and, as there are some similarities to karate, at least in the basics, I was able to help him at home for a while. But, as he moved through his first few belts, the differences became obvious and I was out of my depth, so I joined too.

By that time, he no longer needed my help and I was doing it for myself. I have never regretted it. Obviously, as my son started training first, he got his black belt before me, but I have very much enjoyed training alongside him. As well as being a tae kwon-do instructor, I am also a qualified tournament referee and officiate at competitions all over the country.

■ TELL us about your tae kwon-do classes...

Apart from Axminster, I also teach in Sidmouth, Charmouth and Bridport. Adults and children train together and we have quite a few family groups, which pleases me, as I originally trained with my son. I think it helps to have someone at home who shares the interest, so I offer a discounted training rate for family members training together.

All my classes are part of the Tae Kwon-Do Association of Great Britain (TAGB). There are more than 600 TAGB schools in the UK, with around 20,000 students training.

■ WHY would you encourage others to take up tae kwon-do?

Certainly for fitness and flexibility. When I started, I was in my thirties and had a very sedentary office job. I was overweight, very unfit and extremely inflexible – I could barely kick above knee height.

Anyone, with enough dedication and effort can go from that as far as they want to take it. For the kids, it also brings confidence, respect, discipline, coordination and good mental focus.

■ DID you watch the Olympic tae kwon-do and what did you think about Jade Jones' gold medal?

When I first started watching the Olympic matches I hated it - too much hopping and cuddling! The kicks were technically superb, incredibly fast, powerful and accurate, but they were so few and far between that, as a spectator, I found it very dull to watch.

I was frustrated as the art offers so much more than the limited window you see at the Olympics. Tae kwon-do translates, very loosely, as the "Way of the Foot and Fist" but, in the Olympics, punches to the head are not allowed, which gives a very restricted view of the dynamic and exciting art that I know.

The later rounds, especially the finals, were more exciting. However, sparring is really only a tiny aspect of the full range of tae kwon-do and anything that raises awareness is a positive thing.

■ DO you think the Olympics has inspired others to get involved in the sport?

I certainly hope so. I hope it has inspired a whole generation to get more physically active. As I said, however, tae kwon-do is much more than just a sport. Anyone who wants to try it out is welcome to come along for a couple of free, no obligation trial sessions.

You can find out more at www.targettagb.co.uk or call me on 01297 639830.

■ WHAT are your other personal interests?

Tae kwon-do takes up most of my time but I also love music. I have only limited musical ability, but I like to try to write songs. There are lots of open mic sessions in several venues around this area and they are a great place to try out new material.

Nobody is judgemental or critical – we all just share in the experience and support each other. Those nights are a lot of fun.

I also freely admit to being a computer nerd.

■ WHAT do you like about living in this area?

The Devon and Dorset coastlines are amazing. Millions of people come here on holiday just to see them. Even travelling between my classes several times a week there can be times when I can turn a corner and catch a view that takes my breath away.

■ WHAT would you add to or change about the local area if you could?

"If it ain't broke, don't fix it" is the saying that applies. I love it here, so why change anything?

■ WHAT three items would you want if stranded on a desert island?

My wife, my son and a crate of sun cream. I'm a Scot, we're not genetically designed for sunshine!

■ WHERE is your ideal holiday destination and why?

I love to visit France. I've been there many times, although not for a couple of years. I lived and worked on the Swiss/French border for a while several years ago. I love the French way of eating out – a meal is about much more than just the food. It is a social experience. The pace of life, even in some of the cities, is more laid back and it is really nice to fit in with that for a while.

St Michael's Trading Estate: WDDC tells town council to stay out of it

WEST Dorset District Council's (WDDC) Chief Executive has told Bridport's Town Council members that their views on the development of St Michael's Trading Estate are no longer required.

In a letter to the town council, WDDC's David Clarke defended the decision to approve the development of the trading estate subject to a long list of conditions, before instructing the town council to stay out of future discussions about the application.

Regarding future negotiations concerning the application Mr Clarke wrote: "None of these directly involves Bridport Town Council and so there will be no need for you to be consulted further at this stage."

He continued: "If the applicant wants to involve you in any aspects of the development – managing the 'island wildlife area' and/or 'riverside walk' for example – then it will be for them to take the initiative and approach you."

In a statement Bridport town councilors expressed disappointment at the letter.

They said: "There was some disappointment at the response and in particular a strong feeling that the town council should be consulted on the Section 106 agreement and the other remaining conditions."

by Chris Denne
chris@pemedi.co.uk

"Bearing in mind the importance of the St Michael's Trading Estate applications and the continuing widespread local concerns on the decision to approve, members felt that it was important to allow the local community, through consultation with the town council, to comment on the agreement and other conditions."

Bridport's Mayor, Councillor Dave Rickard, believed the people of Bridport still deserved a voice regarding the application, for which consent still has not been formally given.

He said: "If the application goes through it's only right that the town council should be part of the negotiations, especially as the (WDDC) committee has gone against the wishes of the town council and pretty much the whole of Bridport."

...whilst petition demands planning meeting is restaged

A PETITION signed by 20 people has been handed to West Dorset District Council (WDDC) to demand a controversial planning meeting be held again.

Campaign group Friends of St Michaels (FSM) are unhappy with the district council Planning Committee's handling of the application to develop Bridport's St Michaels Trading Estate at a meeting in June.

The meeting has been described as "chaotic" and "a farce" and the conduct of at least one councillor who sat on the committee is already under investigation.

The protestors claim that voting at the meeting did not take place as recorded in the minutes of the meeting, claiming that only one round of voting took place instead of the two required in this instance.

WDDC insist voting was carried out in a proper fashion.

The petition also claims that WDDC did not follow its own guidelines when it came to arranging the location of the meeting.

In a statement FSM said: "Friends of St Michael's have accessed WDDC's Statement of Community Involvement for Development Control Committee meetings which states;

'In the case of a particularly contentious application due to be determined by committee and where there is a lot of public interest, the council will hold the meeting in the town closest to the application site.'

"Having attracted well over 500 local objections, only 20-30 Bridport residents were able to attend the hearing in Dorchester, who were nearly outnumbered by supporters for the application, believed to be from Yeovil."

WDDC declined to comment on the allegations in the petition, and stated only that the petition would be processed in the usual fashion.

Hughes Unit decision is challenged

But SM&A solicitor Diane Astin believes the signs are good for Ms Copson's challenge.

She said: "Before coming to a decision about the unit the trust was required to undertake an engagement process... and consultation with the public was required.

"The trust carried out the consultation, but we say they had already made their minds up.

"They must approach consultation with an open mind, but they haven't responded to people's concerns and people are not satisfied.

"These cases are difficult to predict but we wouldn't have got this far without having a reasonable case, so I would say the signs are good."

DHT now has until October 5th to show evidence the consultation was carried out properly, something it insists happened.

A DHT spokesman said: "The consultation was carried out fully and appropriately.

"Indeed, Dorset Healthcare has received positive feedback to this effect."

If the judge rules against DHT, the decision to close the unit would be challenged by judicial review and the public consultation may have to take place again.

If that were to happen, Ms Astin is hopeful DHT will have a change of heart.

She said: "We would hope that after proper consultation they might decide not to close the beds and the Hughes Unit could stay open."

However Ms Copson believes the threat of closure is already affecting some people who rely on the facility.

She said: "People suffering from psychiatric disorders have become disillusioned and frightened.

"They ask themselves: Where do I go if I need help?

"Where can I put my head where people understand what I'm feeling?"

Solar panels will boost coffers

SOLAR panels will soon be providing Bridport Town Council with welcome additional income.

The Finance and General Purposes Committee heard how income from the Feed in Tariff (FIT) generated by solar panels on their Plottingham depot had recouped 15 per cent of the cost of installation since they were put up in November last year.

Town Clerk Bob Gillis told the committee the entire cost of installation – £9,417 – was projected to be recouped within five years after which further FIT payments would represent clear profit.

In a later statement Mr Gillis said:
“The committee felt that the installation had been a great success enabling the town council to generate income and also help to reduce its carbon emissions in accordance with its Climate Change Strategy.

“It will also be looking at further opportunities to do this, when it considers the findings of an environmental audit of the town council’s buildings being undertaken by local MSc student Brian Atkinson.”

Transport action group in need of new secretary

THE West Dorset Western Area Transport Action Group (WATAG) is seeking a new secretary following the departure of Joy Michaud after more than five years’ service.

Mrs Michaud said: “WATAG is one of those groups that works quietly behind the scenes but makes an enormous difference to people.”

“Pretty much everything in Bridport depends on transport and for many people this means public transport.”

She added: “I am stepping aside with enormous regret as other commitments are taking up all my time.”

WATAG holds its next meeting at 6:30pm on Thursday, September 27th at the Women’s Institute Hall on North Street.

Top of the agenda will be the revised timetable for the 31 bus. All are welcome.

Celebrations for Watershed

A PUBLIC relations company based in Bridport has "punched above its weight" to scoop a coveted international prize.

Watershed PR, which describes itself as a "small giant" in the field, picked up a bronze medal in the 9th annual International Business Awards.

The company with offices on St Andrews Road saw off competition from 3,200 nominations from more than 50 countries to land the award.

The prize recognises Watershed's campaign to promote the European tour of the world's most valuable coin in March this year.

The American minted 1933 Double Eagle has a face value of $20 (£12)

by Chris Denne
chris@pemedial.co.uk

but was sold at auction for a record-breaking $7.6million (£4.7million).

Although nearly half a million of the coins were produced in the 1930s, almost all were melted down before being distributed, making it extremely rare.

A must-see for the serious collector, the coin was exhibited around Europe by the Samlerhuset Group, a Norwegian mail-order company specialising in collectables such as coins, and a valued client of Watershed.

Established seven years ago, Watershed now employs five people and counts Bridport's Palmers brewery and Bryanstone School in Blandford Forum among its clients.

Sara Hudson, principal at Watershed, was delighted to be recognised on the international stage.

She said: "We are proud to be based in Dorset and this part of the world is very dear to us.

"But it is nice to be part of the international picture too. We have a reputation for punching above our weight and it's nice to be recognised as such. It's great to be a small agency based in Dorset and stand shoulder-to-shoulder with big international firms."

Carers survey to be rolled out next month

CARERS across Dorset are to be quizzed by the Department of Health as a new survey is rolled out in October.

The confidential questionnaire – designed to take just 20 minutes to complete – seeks to improve services for the estimated 42,000 people in the county who routinely look after loved-ones.

Over 1,000 of the county's carers will find the survey on their doormats in a bid to discover how much support they need from local services.

Andrew Cattaway, cabinet member for adult social care at Dorset County Council, acknowledged the work carers put in around the clock.

He said: "Being a carer comes with huge responsibilities - people often give up their jobs and many enjoyable aspects of their lives to look after a relative, friend or neighbour."

He added: "The more responses we receive, the more improvements we can make. It is important that we receive sufficient feedback to develop our services."

Autumn festival

THE Allington Hill Autumn Festival takes place on September 29th, from 4pm til late. Attractions include making your own willow lantern or wild flower seed bomb, live music, barbecue, bonfire and lantern parade. There is no admission charge.

■ Palmers' Head Brewer Darren Batten is presented with the certificate naming Tally Ho! as Beer of the Festival at Stratford-upon-Avon by organiser Julian Stobinski of Shakespeare CAMRA

Tally Ho! wins best beer prize

STAFF at Palmers Brewery raised a glass after Tally Ho! won the coveted title of Beer of the Festival at the Stratford-upon-Avon Beer and cider festival.

Festival-goers and members of the Shakespeare CAMRA branch voted for their favourite beer in their sixth summer festival.

Tally Ho! was one of the first ales to run out, and polled over 50 per cent of all the votes.

Festival organiser Julian Stobinski, 55, of Norton in Worcestershire, brought his CAMRA comrades to the Bridport brewery to present the certificate to Head Brewer Darren Batten on Tuesday, September 11th.

He said: "Tally Ho! won by an overwhelming landslide. We had over 60 different beers at the festival and the theme was local and coastal beers.

"Normally there are only a couple of votes in it so this proves how popular Tally Ho! is.

"I voted for it, as it is so rich and dark, one of the best beers I have tasted."

Mr Stobinski described the tour of Palmers Brewery as the best he's been on.

He added: "It was fascinating to go behind the scenes and see the mix of modern plant and historic brewing apparatus which was used in the centuries-old brewing process.

There are not many breweries like it left in the country."

First craft fair for Bridport's newly

■ PIXIE LEWIS, self-taught jewellery maker: "It's gone ok"

by Chris Denne

chris.denne@pemedi.co.uk

TOWN surveyor, Daryl Chambers summed up the first craft fair at Bridport Town Hall as "on the whole pretty positive," although he admitted there were "things to take on board".

Mr Chambers orchestrated the event in a bid to get more people to use the recently-revamped historic building.

Improved signage and background music from the off were some of the comments from stallholders that Mr Chambers listened to at the close of business.

He said: "On the whole it's been pretty positive. It's one of those things where once it gets established, more people will come."

"For a first day I think it's been pretty good."

He added: "I've listened to what the stallholders have told me

■ SHOWING HOW IT'S DONE: The hedgers and ploughers in action

Excellent turnout for

THIS year's Melplash Agricultural Society's Hedging and Ploughing competition took place in glorious sunshine at Yonder near Bridport.

Spectacular views of the West Dorset countryside were enjoyed by visitors to the venue, offered by kind permission of Crutchley Estates Ltd.

Tim Frampton, Melplash Agricultural

Society's Hedging and Ploughing Section chairman was more than happy with the numbers

He said: "The turnout was excellent and well supported by the local young farmers. We had a good number of ploughing entries and the entries for the hedging were exceptional.

"It was great to see so many people spectating and enjoying the various displays and also having a go at laser clay pigeon shooting which was new this year.

Special thanks must go to all the sponsors who without their support this event would not go ahead and of course all the helpers and other members of the society who work behind the scenes."

It's time to brew up for Macmillan

Sheila launches her book

AN AUTHOR from Burton Bradstock spent the morning signing copies of her new novel 'The Tidings Tree' at Good Books on Gundry Lane.

Sheila Spencer-Smith also discussed her book about the personal journey of a woman still affected by events in her past.

The novel is set in a fictitious North Dorset village based on one Mrs Spencer-Smith knew well as a child.

She said: "I went camping there as a girl, first with the Brownies then with my family. We got to know the farmer and he had daughters around my age so we got on very well."

The writer of over 40 years would not divulge where the real village lies.

She laughed: "I'm not saying where the real village is. I'm keeping it a secret."

Good Books is a Christian bookshop and resource centre and Mrs Spencer's feels there is a Christian sensibility running through the book.

She said: "It's not overly Christian, but it is there in the background. I hope my faith comes through the writing rather than being strictly a Christian book."

She is now working on the second book of the series, which has been accepted by publishers.

■ BECCY Faircloth and Alice Bayley from West Bay Tea Rooms will be raising funds for Macmillan Cancer Support as part of the 'World's Biggest Coffee Day'

A RESTAURANT in Burton Bradstock and a tea room in West Bay are joining eateries across the nation to make the 'World's Biggest Coffee Day' in aid of Macmillan Cancer Support.

The owners of the two establishments are hoping to smash last year's sum which raised over £10 million around the world.

Sue and Peter Marks of West Bay Tea Rooms will donate 50p from every cup of coffee and pot of tea sold throughout the day and encourage customers to purchase one of their homemade cake pops to raise money for the charity.

Meanwhile, at the Hive Beach Cafe in Burton Bradstock, Melanie Attrill – cake and dessert maker for both the Hive and the Watch House in West Bay – will be on hand to share hints and tips while tempting visitors to stock up on homemade cakes.

There will also be competitions including guess the weight of the fruit cake, name the bear, how many jelly beans in the jar and much more, with all proceeds going to Macmillan.

The events take place on September 28th. For further information and to make a personal donation visit Macmillan Cancer Support's website: www.macmillan.org.uk

New man for West Dorset Partnership

West Dorset Partnership (WDP) has welcomed the appointment of new chairman Paul Everall CBE.

The former civil servant comes into the role having chaired a number of sustainable construction committees for the European Commission.

Mr Everall is also the Chief Executive of Local Authority Building Control (LABC), a member organisation representing local authority building control departments across England and Wales.

The Bridport resident was delighted by the appointment.

He said: "I feel privileged to have been appointed chairman of the partnership in a part of the country which I have known for many years and have lived since the summer of 2008.

"I have enjoyed the challenge of helping to foster and develop community planning in West Dorset, and I look forward to continuing to do so."

WDP expressed sorrow at departing chief David Webb, saying: "The partnership offers a sad farewell to David Webb who has successfully led the partnership for the last four years."

Mr Webb is leaving to concentrate on other commitments including leading Dorset Samaritans.

WDP is a partnership of voluntary, public and private sector organisations working together to improve the quality of life in the area.

Lions' diabetes awareness programme in Bridport

THE Lions Club of Bridport recommended four people seek medical advice following a diabetes screening session at the arts centre.

Two local qualified nurses carried out the free finger-prick test on 250 people giving an instant reading of blood sugar level.

The four people with abnormal readings were advised to see their GP for further examination.

The Lions are also handing out life-saving "message in a bottles".

The distinctive green and white canisters can be potential life savers as they contain the personal medical details of the owner.

The bottles are kept in the fridge and marked with a green cross to show paramedics or doctors where the information is kept.

These free canisters can be obtained from the police station, Citizens Advice Bureau, care agencies and from Bridport Lions.

Top award for Groves

GROVES Nurseries of Bridport has scooped a prize in a competition to find the country's best garden centre.

The family run business won silver in the national Greatest Garden Centre Team Awards held at the National Motorcycle museum in Birmingham.

The awards, presented by Olympic rowers Zac Purchase and Mark Hunter, were run in conjunction with The Sun newspaper. Customers across the UK voted for their favourite garden centre, with Groves picking up the special prize at the ceremony.

He said: "This is a great achievement for all of the team here at Groves. It's really nice to know that our customers think so highly of us and it has been a great way of getting some positive feedback. I would just like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who took the time for us".

Groves also received recognition for their community and schools work and were finalists in the Community Involvement category.

New season for camera club

BRIDPORT Camera Club has launched a new season with a series of photographic shows.

Founder member David Barnikle and Sheena O'Donoghue shared a presentation of images they captured of their 15 day trip to Iceland in June, where they had 'chased waterfalls'.

They also captured turf buildings, acres of lupins, magnificent mountains and moss-covered terrain.

Sheena also informed the audience of the teasing she had been subjected to when the five men on the expedition joked that a collection of well 'used', straw-filled sheep barns had been booked for their sleeping quarters.

Charlie Wheeler then amused the audience with photographs taken during a six week visit to Botswana and Tuli, the African Conservation Experience, where volunteers study and record wildlife, monitor elephants and undertake habitat restoration.

Charles Hallsworth also demonstrated how to prepare both print and digital images for submission to club competitions and announced his fortnightly sessions on editing images and camera use.

The club next meets on October 3rd at 7:30pm at the Masonic Hall, when host Guy Edwardes will present his latest images.

Tickets are available through The Book Shop, Pinns, Bridport Music, Fruits of the Earth and Waterstones.

From Carnegie Hall... to West Bay!

INTERNATIONALLY acclaimed musician and comic Aksel Kolstad has an impressive list of tour dates including New York, Tokyo and a string of European capitals.

So when, following a sell-out gig at New York's Carnegie Hall, he appeared at West Bay's Sladers Yard (capacity 60) something was surely not right.

Not at all, according to the classically trained pianist from Norway.

He said: "Yes, this is different to the 500 to 1,000 seater shows, but for me it's better because you get to interact with the audience."

"In 2009 I opened the world's first classical concert café - the Café de Concert - which is much more like venues like this. I love it, acutally."

The 31-year-old combines classical recitals with hilarious stand-up comedy but the Norwegian never compromises the purity of the musical pieces.

Stabbing the table with a finger, he said: "I never screw with the music. We play hardcore traditional standard repertoire. We just play with the frame."

"For example at the Café de Concert black and white dress is not allowed. No tuxedos. Sometimes I have to tell an internationally acclaimed artist who has come in a tux - sorry you can't play tonight. Get out of here. Dead serious."

"The tuxedo was the fashion in the 19th century. It's how musicians dressed to look like the people in the audience."

"Now it just creates a barrier. I am interested in breaking down that barrier."

Aksel - who has been playing piano since

by Chris Denne

chris.denne@pemedial.co.uk

he was two years old - had a rich introduction to performance and music from his nationally famous actress mother Kirsti Kolstad.

He said: "When I was two my mother sat me on my knee and put a storybook on the piano and said 'Let's tell a story'. We started to improvise and it went from there."

"Now that's what I do. I tell stories. Stories about my life, my past, my views of the world. In that sense I'm not really like a proper stand-up, because what you are getting is me."

The pianist was introduced to Slader's Yard by fellow Norwegian Ingebret Mojord, who had taken a sabbatical from optometry to work with Sladers' Pether Southall.

It was a new experience for Aksel, having never performed in the United Kingdom before now. It was an experience he wants to repeat.

He said: "I think classical music is entitled to be performed everywhere, especially beautiful places like this. This is a British paradise."

"Why would you ever want to move from a place like this? You have history, stories, ghosts, and it is just so beautiful."

He added: "I like eccentric places. This is life!"

Aksel Kolstad performed two sell-out nights at Sladers Yard as part of a Norwegian weekend which included a traditional Norwegian menu.

Campaign to make walk to school safer

RESIDENTS of Salway Ash are calling for people to join them on their 'Walk to School' to highlight the need for a footpath in the village.

Campaigners have been calling for a footpath to link the church and school with the rest of the village for three decades and have received the backing of Oliver Letwin MP. It is hoped the event will highlight the number of people who would walk to the village's school if it were safer.

The walkers will leave at 8:20am this morning (Wednesday, September 26th) from the green on Salway Drive.

'Tea and Chat' celebrates third anniversary

A VITAL service bringing people together in the heart of town has celebrated its third anniversary.

'Tea and Chat' allows people to come together once a month to chat, relax and have a cup of tea and a slice of cake or two.

The initiative was set up in recognition of the loneliness that can affect some people, especially later in life.

by Chris Denne
chris@pemedial.co.uk

It is recognised that Sundays can be particularly difficult for people living alone, so the afternoons are scheduled for the third Sunday in every month.

Jackie Webb volunteers to help the group as part of her involvement with the Christian Fellowship

Church in Kings Square.

She said: "Everybody comes, has a chat and some cake and spends time together. After we eat we tend to have a bit of a sing-song."

Sundays are a difficult day for a lot of people so that's the day we hold these afternoons."

Harry Britton regularly gets involved, bringing his guitar along to raise a song or two.

He said: "It does fulfill a need. It can be lonely getting through a Sunday. All the shops are shut and you can get no visitors. So this is a way to brighten up the day and have some company."

Ninety-year-old Clara Richards was grateful for the chance to get out and meet people.

She said: "I started coming when my husband died three years ago. It was a very difficult time and, yes, loneliness does come into it."

"I like coming here very much. It's a really nice place to come."

Tea and Chat takes place at the United Church Hall, East Street every third Sunday of the month, from 3pm to 4.30pm. Transport is available if needed.

If you require more information contact Tom Murphy on 01308 455674.

Wessex Arts exhibition

■ Ian Harris demonstrates his skills

THE Wessex Arts and Visual Expressionists Group has arrived at Bridport Art Centre with an exhibition and live demonstrations by members.

Their 'Above the WAaVE' exhibition is on show in the BAC gallery, while outside on the forecourt members demonstrate their skills and answer questions from the public. It is the first time the group has gone on show.

Each day showcases one craft from the group's expertise, with demonstrations from a village blacksmith, a basket maker, a potter, a stone carver, and a wood turner.

Offering up ancient pottery techniques on Saturday was WAaVE member Ian Harris, who has worked with ceramics for nearly 50 years.

He said: "I use techniques pre-dating the potter's wheel which came about 4,000 to 6,000 years ago. People have been stopping, having a chat about it and showing a real interest."

They have also been snapping up his work.

Mr Harris, who has a workshop in Corfe Castle, said: "We've sold quite a lot already. It's going very well and we will definitely be back."

Dorchester Curiosity Centre celebrates first anniversary

The Dorchester Curiosity Centre will be celebrating its first anniversary on 1st October after an exciting 12 months.

Located on the Grove Trading Estate in Dorchester, Dorchester Curiosity Centre offers a unique shopping experience with an eclectic mix of antiques, collectables, furniture, vintage clothing, records, retro items, jewellery, textiles and much more.

If you haven't visited yet prepare to be amazed by the 12,000 sq.ft. former bus garage housing nearly 100 different traders.

The 'French Style' Café de la Curiosite offers delicious hot and cold home cooked food, cakes and cream teas and has become a popular choice with customers.

Owners Martin and Michelle are very pleased with the successes in the first year "We are able to offer something for everybody in our 'Aladdin's Cave' of treasures. Our customers can spend hours searching out a small trinket or fitting out an entire holiday home or pub! We have been overwhelmed by the response of our customers and are grateful for the support and hard work of our staff and traders, who contribute hugely to the great atmosphere in the centre."

Martin and Michelle also buy items brought to them that customers no longer want – "It is a fantastic way to recycle unwanted items" – and will come and view any items that are too big to fit into the car.

Dorchester Curiosity Centre is open 7 days a week (Monday-Saturday 9am-5pm, Sunday 10am-4pm) and will be celebrating the first anniversary from 1st to 6th October. A warm welcome awaits you!

Thistlegate House

THISTLEGATE House is a splendid and most elegant residential care home which offers "possibly the finest residential care in the south west". The Grade II Lutyens inspired "arts and crafts" style property retains the ambience of a fine country residence with its timber beamed ceilings and stone feature fireplace. The large comfortable lounge which is set out in a manner to encourage conversation or privacy as desired, overlooks the formal part of the four acre grounds which boasts many fine trees, terraces, walkways and a delightful sunken garden together with far reaching views of the surrounding countryside across to Lyme bay.

As you enter Thistlegate House the comfortable calm relaxed atmosphere is immediately apparent and welcoming. The accommodation is spacious and tastefully decorated as you would expect of a house of this style. The high quality care is provided by a very experienced professional staff together with the resident proprietors, June Webb and John Corney, who are available to residents and staff alike throughout the day and night which ensures that the very highest standards of care are maintained at all times. The excellent cuisine at Thistlegate House is a very important part of daily life with the highly varied menus being planned by the chefs and June Webb on a daily basis, the elegant dining room provides the ideal setting where the residents receive silver service.

Great emphasis is placed upon achieving a feeling of well-being for the residents of Thistle-gate House by appreciating their individuality and providing the care that they need in the manner that they require. There are many additional aspects and services available to residents at Thistlegate House. We would be pleased to discuss these, along with the level of care required for yourself, a relative or perhaps a friend and establish exactly how we at Thistlegate House may be of help to you.

For further information please contact Mrs. June Webb or Mr. John Corney Tel: 01297 560569 or visit our new internet web site www.thistlegate-house.co.uk

Clarendone

WHAT a success the Lyme Regis ArtsFest was this year! There were so many new, interesting events and what a lovely Brochure.

Companions from Clarendone had an outing to the Baptist Church Exhibition, followed by a welcome cup of tea and lovely cakes afterwards. Among the pieces of work on display the variety of media and style took our attention, from the glass work to the illustrative to the more conceptual pieces.

We were given such a warm welcome and the church is so easily accessible to those with limited mobility. The curation of the show suited us brilliantly, with time to wander, corners to turn and surprises to engage us.

We thoroughly enjoyed the collaboration last year between Community Arts, the Museum and Clarendone, and hope to extend our involvement with the artists of our community. We have invited ArtsFest to be part of our Art & Craft programme by enjoying visits from local artists.

We would like to say a big special thankyou to the Lyme Regis ArtsFest and the Baptist Church for such a memorable afternoon.

Top Tips for your Lawn this Autumn

The next few months are very important if you want to create a beautiful lawn for next year. For your best-ever lawn, follow these five simple tips...

Mow it Properly

The best thing you can do for your lawn is to make sure you're cutting it correctly. Many problems are caused by not mowing it often enough, then cutting it far too short when you do. In autumn you'll need to mow less frequently than in summer as grass grows less quickly, but don't let it get too long. If the grass is a little long as spring approaches, mow in a couple of stages - try not to take more than a third off its length in any one cut. Ideally your lawn should be kept between 3cms and 4cms high.

Collect lawn cuttings - dead grass will starve your lawn of essential water and light, and encourage excessive thatch and a build-up of moss.

Make sure your lawn mower is up to the job too. Consider getting it serviced to ensure blades are sharp, the engine is running well and the power cable is free of any damage.

Clear up Leaves

Sweep up leaves regularly. If left on the lawn, they reduce the amount of light getting to the grass and if left for too long, will smother the grass over the winter. This leads to bare patches that are vulnerable to disease in spring. Removing leaves also helps prevent moss as leaves allow water to settle on the lawn.

Get on Top of the Moss

Moss is most prolific between autumn and spring, and some lawn conditions make it more likely to thrive. Lawns that are compacted due to regular usage and footfall (particularly common in soil with a high clay content) can't dissipate water from the surface - and moss loves these damp conditions. Gardens with a lot of thatch are also high risk. Made up of stems, roots and leaves, thatch forms a mat on the lawn's surface, preventing moisture, oxygen and nutrients reaching the roots. Moss also loves shady conditions. If your lawn is particularly shady, consider re-seeding with a shade-tolerant grass seed.

Consider Mechanical Treatments

For many lawns, mechanical treatments are the only way to prevent the build-up of moss. Hollow-Tine Aeration alleviates compaction and involves punching out thousands of cores from the lawn to allow air, water and nutrients to reach the roots. Next season, your grass will look thicker and healthier. Scarification uses a machine with blades and knives to reduce thatch. It's a much more rigorous and effective process than raking. Reduction of thatch will considerably improve moss levels.

Watch Out for Common Problems

Keep an eye out for unusual patches or discolouration of the lawn, which can indicate a fungal infection. If dealt with early, this is easily remedied but if ignored, can have devastating effects.

Beaminster recital for up-and-coming musical talents

ROSALIND VENTRIS is an outstanding young viola player and winner of numerous prizes, including the Gwynne Edwards memorial prize for the most promising British entrant at the Lionel Tertis International Viola Competition in 2006, when she was only 17, which also included a concerto engagement with the European Chamber Orchestra.

In 2008 she won first prize in the Cambridge University Musical Society Concerto Competition, when she also won the prize for the 'instrumentalist of the year' at the University. From Cambridge she obtained full scholarship to the Guildhall School of Music and Drama, where she is now a Fellow. Rosalind is already in demand as a soloist at international festivals.

Cast in Time perform 'The Land Remains' in Eype

'THE Land Remains' is a journey across the lands and oceans of our past, telling the stories of the many thousands of English, Scottish, Welsh and Irish people driven from their homes and lands by cruel landlords and corrupt governments.

Using music, songs and narrative interwoven with silhouettes and beautiful pictures as a backdrop, Cast in Time will carry you back to a time where little had changed in hundreds of years; until power, greed and industry forced people away from the life they knew and loved. These are true stories showing the endurance, strength and fortitude of our people in times of adversity.

With powerful lead vocals and harmonies, this eight strong group playing tenor, six and twelve string guitars, keyboard, mandolin, double bass, accordion, bouzouki, flute and recorder, will leave you with a truly memorable musical experience.

See Cast In Time perform 'The Land Remains' at Eype Centre for the Arts on Saturday, October 27th at 7.30pm. Tickets cost £7.50 and there will be refreshments available.

Comedy Café returns for first anniversary show

TICKETS are now on sale for the first anniversary show of the Bridport Comedy Café which returns next week.

After a summer break the comedy returns to the Bridport Arts Centre's Café with another stellar line up of new talent next Friday.

Hosting the night will be regular MC Tom Glover, who will be joined by some of the newest acts on the comedy scene making their first steps into the tough world of live stand up.

Finishing the night in style will be headliner Russ Powell, who has a unique brand of one liners and hilarious anecdotes that never fail to entertain. Russ has only been on the comedy circuit a couple of years but has already clocked up in excess of 500 gigs, received a five star review for his Edinburgh Festival show and has appeared at some of the country's biggest venues, including the legendary London Comedy Store.

Glover is raring to get the monthly gigs back on track as we enter the autumn season.

"As the nights get darker and the weather gets colder it's the perfect time for stand up comedy," said Tom. "We have had some great acts over the past year who I have hand picked from my time on the circuit. Quite a few have since gone on to get national radio and TV exposure so it's great to have had them at the café first. This month's headliner is a good friend of mine and a very funny guy who I've never seen have a bad gig. I'm sure he is going to give the bridport audience something to laugh about."

The September Bridport Arts Centre Comedy Café will be at 8pm on Friday, September 28th.

Tickets are available from the box office on 01308 424204, £5 adults/£3 concessions.

ReView | Trotter delights on the Skrabl organ

A LARGE audience was treated to an outstanding organ recital in St Michael's Parish Church, Lyme Regis, given by the internationally acclaimed organist, Thomas Trotter, at the new Skrabl organ.

The programme was wide ranging from Bach to Hindemith including pieces by John Bull, W.T.Best, Wammes and Elgar and finishing with an arrangement of Rossini's William Tell Overture.

Apart from the dazzling performances showing the multitude of colours on the organ, a highlight of the evening was the screen at the front of the church revealing the sheer dexterity of the foot and finger work of the organist. Added to that, it allowed Thomas Trotter to make direct contact with the audience for explanations of the pieces played interspersed with witticisms and stories. Thanks to modern technology this was a vast improvement on the usual way of just hearing the music behind you played by an anonymous celebrity.

The appreciative audience thoroughly enjoyed the event and the proceeds went to the organ appeal.

The organ appeal looks forward to presenting the final concert of the 2012 series when the Reading Phoenix Choir return to St Michael's Church and sing on October 27th at 7.30pm.

Director Weide covers Allen's earliest film work in Take the Money and Run, Bananas, Sleeper, and Love and Death; frequent Oscar favourites such as Annie Hall, Manhattan, Zelig, Broadway Danny Rose, Purple Rose of Cairo, Crimes and Misdemeanors, Husbands & Wives, Bullets Over Broadway, and Mighty Aphrodite; and his recent globetrotting phase with Match Point, Vicky Cristina Barcelona and the recent success Midnight in Paris.

THE electrifying flamenco jazz guitarist and composer Eduardo Niebla starts his autumn touring, accompanied by guitarist Matthew Robinson, with a series of concerts in rural Dorset organized by Artsreach, starting at Powerstock Hut on Friday, October 5th.

This is a wonderful opportunity for a guitarist who often performs on the international stage, to play in a very intimate setting for the local community. Earlier this year he was in concert at the Cairo Jazz Festival and the Queen Elizabeth Hall, London.

He is described by The Spectator as "A display of supernatural talent...and a spellbinding mixture of flamenco and modern jazz, bursting with obvious passion and verve."

Eduardo Niebla plays at Powerstock Hut, at 7.30pm. A bar and food is available from 7pm.

Tickets cost £8, £6 for under 16s, and are available in person from Marquis of Lorne, Nettlecombe, Three Horseshoes, Powerstock, or from the box office on 01308 485264

Louise Parker sings with added Clouts

THE 115 Club will once again throw open the doors to an eclectic evening of Jazz, Blues and Swing with the soulful vocals of Louise Parker, joined on piano by Philip Clouts on Thursday, September 27th.

Growing up in a house filled with music, from the folk, calypso and opera enjoyed by her Jamaican born mother to the swing and be-bop from her jazz-obsessed father, Plymouth-based vocalist Louise Parker, was born to create the sort of soulful sound that is earning her a great reputation in the jazz world. Combining a potent mix of funk and gospel, Louise blends an effortless rhythmical style with a sweet warm tone and daring scatting to create a performance which truly stirs the soul.

A big hit on the festival circuit and a regular on Radio 2's Best of Jazz, Louise Parker is a powerful live performer and a skilful interpreter of swing, blues and gospel classics. She commits to each song with the warmth, spirit and passion of the great jazz divas.

This week Louise is joined on piano by Philip Clouts, a South African-born Pianist who uses many influences from global sources to create what can only be called melodic, contemporary and jazz standard. Living on the South West Coast of England, Philip is inspired by the sights and sounds to create beautiful music, at the same time calling on his roots of African and Latin music to infuse a collaboration of styles.

Pre-booking for dinner between 7:00 and 8:00 pm is essential and guests should telephone on the day (between 2:00 and 6:00pm) to confirm numbers in their party. At which time they will be informed of the cover charge - anticipated at between £5 and £10 per guest. Unfortunately late-comers cannot be accommodated as dining must be completed before the music starts at about 9:00pm.

Check out www.louiseparker.co.uk for more info! Or the 115 Club's own site at www.115club.com or www.facebook.com/115club

We have extensive sales rails.

Upstairs is our bridal boutique we order dresses to sell ranging from £295.00 - £1099.00, sizes from 8 - 30 in stock and on certain dresses can be ordered up to size 40.

We have several top quality seamstresses available to alter your dress maximum cost of £75.00. So this will make the cost of your dress less than any other bridal outlet. As so often they include the price of fitting in the overall price of the dress, if you need a fitting or not.

Whiter Smiles

USING advanced LED Light technology, we offer quick, effective and affordable Teeth Whitening solutions!

Your smile is one of the features people notice first. A brighter, white smile will enhance your natural look whilst increasing your confidence and creating a lasting impression on everybody you meet. Cosmetic Teeth Whitening can treat: tea, coffee, cola, red wine, curry, tobacco and aging.

How does it work? This safe and gentle procedure involves the use of oxidizing agents accelerated by LED blue lighting. The oxidizing agent penetrates the porous element of the tooth enamel and breakdown stains that block light and cause discolouration. The treatment can last from 12 - 18 months depending on various factors such as smoking and regular consumption of staining agents.

Ford Mondeo named greenest family car by What Car? again

THE Ford Mondeo has been declared the UK's greenest family car by What Car? for the second year running.

The 1.6-litre Ford Mondeo TDCi ECONetic is the magazine's segment winner, thanks to an official combined fuel economy figure of 65.7mpg and CO2 emissions of 114g/km – meaning owners pay road tax of only £30 a year.

At yesterday's What Car? Green Awards, the magazine highlighted the Ford Mondeo as a driver's car with eco credentials.

"The Ford Mondeo is deservedly a winner for the second year running," said Chas Hallett, What Car? editor-in-chief. "It's a great family car and does everything What Car? expects a green family car to do. It might be five years old, but it's still the best in its class because it offers the best combination of practicality, driver involvement, performance and low environmental impact."

The magazine's green jurors selected the 115PS Ford Mondeo's Zetec series as offering the best blend of affordability and equipment, including climate control, cruise control and Bluetooth phone connectivity as standard.

Mark Ovenden, Ford Britain managing director, who collected the award, said: "The Ford Mondeo remains a favourite thanks to style, comfort and its responsive fuel-efficient engines. I'm delighted that our latest powertrains in Ford Mondeo have again caught the eye of What Car? and are making its green family car award our own."

The award-winning Ford Mondeo Zetec, which also boasts standard Auto-Start-Stop and EasyFuel to prevent misfuelling, is priced from £21,195 (five door) and £22,445 (estate).

Mazda6 and Takeri – separated at birth

- New Mazda6 proportions and stance are almost exactly the same as Takeri
- 'KODO - Soul of Motion' design ethos takes concept cars and drives them off the show stand and onto the road
- Dramatic proportions, muscular stance and tactile detailing – new Mazda6

WITH the launch of the all-new Mazda6 there is a trend emerging from Mazda, its production cars closely resemble its concepts.

When the wraps came off the all-new Mazda6 at last month's Moscow Motorshow, it's design and style was incredibly well received, and much of this overwhelmingly positive response was due to its striking similarity to the Takeri design concept believes Peter Birtwhistle, Mazda's European Chief Designer.

"With our 'KODO - Soul of Motion' design ethos, we are taking our concept cars and driving them off the show stand and onto the road," says Birtwhistle. "You only have to look at our recent design studies to realise just how closely our production models mimics our concept cars."

"Much like the CX-5 mirrored the proportions, stance and detailing of the Minagi concept car we unveiled at the 2011 Geneva Motorshow, so the Takeri was the unmistakable inspiration for the new Mazda6," explains Birtwhistle. "If you view the two cars next to each other it is easy to see just how strongly one resembles the other."

Of course, Mazda has a great history of creating some pretty wild concept vehicles that stretch the creativity of our designers and demonstrate our design power to the limit. But it's also strategically important to show something closer to production as we roll out our KODO design message. Hence Minagi and Takeri.

These 'teaser' concepts are generally constructed well after the final production design has been signed off and are exceptionally valuable in gauging the response from both the media and the general public.

"While some manufacturers tend to heavily camouflage their teaser show cars – creating a coupé concept when in reality the production version will be a five-door hatch – we took the decision with Takeri to base it as closely as possible on the final production car," continues Birtwhistle.

While Takeri is fractionally lower, longer and wider than the new Mazda6, its proportions and stance are almost exactly the same. So, like the Minagi and the CX-5 before it, the Takeri was incredibly close to new Mazda6.

"To use Takeri and its KODO design language to accurately portray how the Mazda6 would look was quite a radical decision by the design team," admits Birtwhistle. "Some commentators believe that the new Mazda6 is not close enough to the Takeri - in hindsight, I believe it's the other way round."

Birtwhistle muses over the idea of the Takeri being too close in its design to the Mazda6. "Possibly, yes, but if we had taken the route of our competitors and created a coupé or convertible, we certainly wouldn't have had anything to measure it by and learn from. When it comes to concept cars and design studies, you don't have to stray too far the production version to run the risk of seriously diluting the public's expectation when production car is finally revealed."

Place Takeri and the new Mazda6 alongside each other and Birtwhistle believes that the most observers would be hard pressed to tell one from the other. "You have to look twice – and when you see the new Mazda6 on the road outside in its natural environment street scene, the similarity is even more pronounced with its dramatic proportions, muscular stance and tactile detailing."

A key factor behind the svelte lines of the new Mazda6 is the lower angled positioning of its SKYACTIV engines, an arrangement that allows the designers to dramatically rake back the car's windscreen to create a cabin position very similar to those of a rear-wheel drive car.

"This car sits beautifully on the road," says Birtwhistle. "It's low, curvaceous and cleanly detailed. It looks just like a concept car let loose on the motorway. Which is really what it is."

Mercedes-Benz is cool

MERCEDES-Benz has made its debut in the annual CoolBrands® list, ranked 16th out of over 10,000 independently identified brands.

Now in its 11th year and co-ordinated by The Centre for Brand Analysis, the list is voted for by 3,000 British consumers and a panel of 39 key influencers including Millie Kendall MBE, Luke Peters, Plan B and David Harewood MBE.

From the initial 10,000, a shortlist of 1,200 brands were ranked for innovation, originality, style, authenticity, desirability and uniqueness – each attributes classed by the organisers that play a part in a brand being cool.

The top non-British automotive brand was Mercedes-Benz. The outright winner was the technology brand, Apple.

Mercedes-Benz is in the midst of launching a range of exciting new cars, including the new A-Class and the upcoming CLS Shooting Brake. Each mixes elegance with innovative technology, performance and comfort. Headed by the SLS AMG, the Mercedes-Benz passenger car range is more diverse than ever before – appealing to different needs, different budgets and preferences.

Rob Holloway, Communications Director at Mercedes-Benz commented on the results: "I think by its very nature, coolness is in the perception of others. I think that cool things have a certain style, elegance and swagger about them."

Cool people possess all these qualities, and cool brands blend a timeless quality with absolute topicality. It sounds like an oxymoron, but that's what makes cool "cool". Like style over fashion, cool endures where trendiness tends to be transient.

"The SLS AMG is a new supercar for a new generation, and the A-Class is just as cool, but a lot more attainable. Radically different from its predecessor, the new A-Class has been designed and positioned to be really desirable to customers who previously might not have considered a Mercedes-Benz. The Concept Style Coupé gives another hint of what's coming – and we've got lots more "must-have" compact cars on the way.

"We're backing up everything we're doing with great products, great people, excellent support of key events, new ways of communicating these cars to new and existing customers – and we're going to do it in some style."

Pickett double sees off Pethy

Netherbury looking good - Uplyme fail to find net

CORONATION CUP R1

BEAMINSTER 3 SOUTH PETHERTON 1
EXPERIENCED striker Ross Pickett marked his elevation to the Beaminster starting line-up by bagging a second-half double that sets up a home quarter-final against Winsham United.

The Rainbows held a narrow 1-0 lead at the interval courtesy of an Ali Boyer cross that drifted over new Pethy 'keeper Josh Dear and fortuitously dropped in at the far post.

But it was a sluggish Beaminster side that emerged after the break. The Magpies, finalists in four of the last seven seasons, took advantage when Paul Holt coolly lobbed 'keeper Adam Herring for the equaliser.

But Pickett soon emerged as the match-winner. First He restored the lead with a cleverly guided back header. And the match-clinching third was just around the corner as Pickett slotted home for his 50th goal in a Beaminster shirt.

The lead could have been extended late-on but Rainbows' skipper Murray Legg somehow contrived to roll the ball past the post from close range with the net empty.

ILMINSTER RES 2 CREWKERNE TOWN 0

IT'S 54 years since Ilminster Reserves lifted the trophy but they could be a dark-horse this season.

They took the lead against Crewkerne on Saturday through promising youngster Taylor Jefferson who smashed a superb 25-yarder past Tigers' keeper Dale Wood.

The lead was doubled in the 70th minute when Luke Woodard nodded home number two and there was no way back for the visitors who have now failed to score in their last three outings. The Blues entertain Farway United in the last eight.

SHEPTON BEAUCHAMP 0 WINSHAM UTD 4

SHEPTON manager Aggy Smith admitted his side were muscled out of this first round tie, he said: "They were far too strong for some of my younger players - but they will learn from this."

Joe Simmons (2), Stu Richards and Richard Scott netted for the visitors as Shepton failed to score at their Brimgrove Lane HQ for the first time in more than three and a half years.

Updated draw: Perry Street v Millwey Rise, Ilminster Res v Farway Utd, Combe Res v Lyme Regis, Beaminster v Winsham Utd.

DIVISION ONE CUP R1

LYME REGIS RES 2 W & M CHINNOCK 0
LYME Regis Reserves included four probable first team regulars as they edged past a West & Middle Chinnock side who, on this showing, could be heading for an immediate return to the premier division.

The Seasiders led at the break through Jack Durrant who calmly side-footed home after being picked -out by Julien Simier in the 23rd minute.

Midfielder Alex Rowe went close to doubling the lead with a header from a corner that was cleared off the line.

Soon after, Simier was denied by a fine save by new Chinnocks' player-manager Matt Alford.

At the other end Mark Cawley surged into the Seasiders box only to be denied by a brave stop by 'keeper Jedd Whittington.

But the tie was clinched by Will Mowbray who weaved his way through the visitors' defence before finishing well.

The Chinnocks' went close to an instant response when Whittington once again did well to keep out a Cawley effort at full-stretch and the resulting corner was headed off the line.

Lyme could, and should, have had a third late-on but young winger Sam Beavis' effort lacked power and was hacked off the line with Alford grounded.

QUARTER-FINAL DRAW: Forton Rangers v Misterton, Perry Street Res v Barrington, Crewkerne Town Res v Beaminster Res, Netherbury v Lyme Regis Res.

JOHN FOWLER CUP R1

HINTON 3 LYME BANTAMS 5 (at Woodroffe)
LYME Bantams battled back from 2-0 down to secure a quarter-final at Drimpton in this first round tie that was switched to the Woodroffe School due to a flower show on the Hinton ground.

The Seasiders grabbed a foot-hold just before the interval when Pete Peacock scored his ninth goal of the season. And they stormed back to lead with goals from Ryan Fifer and Ben Morgan, a 25-yard long-range scorcher, to lead 3-2 before they were pegged back by the plucky Saints.

Lyme restored the lead when Patryk Skibinski's effort was palmed away to Wallace Blackmore who netted from close-range.

The win was sealed when Man-of-the-Match Darren Poole, back in Lyme colours after a spell with Pymore, scored the fifth in the 86th minute. Vinny Allen (2) and player-manager Ross Jewell scored for the Saints.

Quarter-final draw: Hawkchurch Utd v Winsham Utd Res, Ilminster A v Chard Utd Res, Combe A v Millwey Rise Res, Drimpton v Lyme Regis Bantams.

PREMIER

COMBE RES 2 PERRY STREET 2

PERRY Street led twice but in the end had to settle for a point, their first of the season, after a 2-2 draw at Slades Cross.

The Mothers took the lead when Liam Riste converted from the penalty spot after Jake Board had been felled in the box.

Simon Vincent squared things up five minutes before the turnaround only for Ryan Mason to score from close range after Matt Vinall's cross had been tipped onto the crossbar.

Vincent missed a golden chance to equalise when he blazed a spot-kick over the bar following a foul by Street player-manager Ian Hilton who was forced to stand-in between the sticks after a first-half injury.

But the Saints extended their unbeaten run to three games when Dan O'Connor headed home an 88th minute leveller.

FARWAY UTD 1 MILLWEY RISE 3

GOALS from Sam Dibbling (2) and Calum Somers saw Millwey Rise continue their impressive start to the season with a 3-1 win at Eastlee Park.

Matt Williams scored the hosts first-half consolation.

DIVISION ONE

CREWKERNE RES 4 BEAMINSTER RES 0

BEAMINSTER Reserves' difficult start to the season continued as they were well-beaten at Henhayes on Saturday.

Lee Banks, Adam Swinnerton, Barry Hayne and Dean Norris scored for the hosts.

NETHERBURY 4 PERRY STREET RES 0

NETHERBURY kept up their promising start to the 2012/13 campaign with a 4-0 win at home to Perry Street.

The Ambers started with a slightly different formation and it paid dividends when the lively Reece Bulman slipped a perfectly timed pass into Phil Hussey who rounded the 'keeper and tapped-in.

It was 2-0 after 17 minutes, when Tom Franklin picked out Hussey who controlled the ball on his chest and volleyed home.

It wasn't until 41st minute that the lead was extended further by Gary Corry who beat two defenders and shot under the Mothers' 'keeper from an acute angle.

The visitors came back into the game after the restart but Hussey turned provider in the 76th minute with a neat first time pass to Franklin who finished calmly.

The hosts' clean sheet was maintained thanks to 'keeper Mark Cuff, who pulled off a fantastic one-handed save pushing the ball onto the post from a header.

"It was not our best performance so far, but the win is a win," said boss Andy Loudon.

DIVISION TWO

CHARMOUTH 0 UPLYME 0

UPLYME failed to score for the first time in 41 matches despite creating a host of chances at Barrs Lane on Saturday.

The point does however keep the Swallows flying high at the top of division two.

CREWKERNE RANGERS 6 WAYTOWN HOUNDS 1

A DOUBLE from former West & Middle Chinnock striker Ashley Cooper saw Waytown trail 2-0 after half an hour at Wadham School.

Matt Read pulled one back and it was 2-1 with 15 minutes left on the clock. Read then had a goal disqualified for offside as the Hounds started to throw everything forward in search of the equaliser.

Rangers got their third, on the break and the visitors fell apart in the last 10 minutes with Cooper taking his personal tally to five but Hounds manager Mark Hughes, who gave his MoM award to Steve Batrick, felt the 6-1 score line was harsh.

THORNCOMBE 1 PYMORE 4

PYMORE'S prolific front line pairing of Tim Hussey and Adam Cody-Boutcher took their combined tally to 12 in just three games as the visitors laid down a marker for the other teams in division two.

"Considering Thorncombe are widely regarded as one of the promotion candidates this was a pretty convincing win," said Pymore player-manager Matt Tither.

After a slow start to the match Hussey opened the scoring with an angled drive in the 25th minute.

Hussey added a second with a neat lobbed effort five minutes later before Corrin Corrick pulled one back for the Thorns before the break.

Cody-Boutcher netted twice after the restart and Pymore cruised home with Tither impressed by a fine all-round team performance.

Local swimmers in good form

CHARD & District Swimming Club held its fourth and final in-house Club Gala of the year at Flamingo Pool in Axminster WRITES HANNAH PULLINGER.

Over 80 swimmers ranging in age from six to 16 years took part.

There were some excellent swims at the Gala which secured a Silver Speed badge for Marianna Dyer, swimming under 36 seconds in the 50 free for the first time.

Forty four County qualifying times were achieved along with nine regional-level times (although regional/national times cannot officially be achieved at this level of gala).

Swimmers who achieved regional level times were: Hannah Pullinger (16) 100 breaststroke; Abi Dare (15) 100 breaststroke; Tessa Down (15) 100 breaststroke; Luke van den Barselaar (16) 50 free, 200 back; Jake Hallam (16) 50 free, 100 butterfly; Ben Fowler (16) 200 back; Elisha Hawkins (12) 100 breaststroke.

Open Water Success

THE weather also held out last weekend for the Blackbuoy Cup Open Water swim organised by Bridport Barracudas Swimming Club.

The event, held at West Bay involves swimming a distance of a 'Bridport Mile' (roughly 1222 metres) from the beach swimming straight out to sea, around a buoy and back again.

Chard swimmer Lauren Harrison (15) entered the event this year for the first time.

Despite being the fourth swimmer overall and first female to emerge from the rather choppy sea, Lauren ended up in a race to the line with Sophie Dawe of the Barracudas who came out of the water close behind her and made a dash for the finish line.

Lauren, belatedly realising she had to actually cross the line a few metres away on the shingle beach, made a final run and both girls completed the race with exactly the same time (19.54 mins).

Lauren was awarded second place for the Ladies Cup and presented with a first place Junior Girl's Cup.

A close finish and perhaps a good lesson to be learnt there!

◆ Swimmers of the month for July were Simon Davis (11) and Leonie Housham (9) who achieved the most progress points at Club Gala 3 in July.

In August the trophies went to Elisha Hawkins (12) and Jake Hallam (16) for the most points achieved from all events during the year as there were no galas during August.

◆ Chard & District Swimming Club are always looking for new members.

Sessions are held at Axminster, Chard and Crewkerne, as well as long course training at Millfield School pool. If you would like to find out more or arrange a free trial please visit our web-site at www.chardswimming.org.uk

Double View From win for Dave

WOOLBRIDGE MOTOR CLUB

THE two-day speed hill climb meeting at the Manor Farm track in Charnwood saw Dave Sims from Newton Abbot take victory in both of the VIEW FROM NEWSPAPERS sponsored events.

At the wheel of his Ralt RT33/34 single-seater racer, Sims stormed to the top of the challenging course in a time of 27.14 seconds to claim the fastest Time of the Day and the Eric Moxom Trophy.

The ideal weather conditions which prevailed during the Saturday event, and enabled five class records to be broken, were unfortunately not replicated the following day. Heavy rain greatly reduced the levels of grip with a number of competitors spinning and leaving the track despite the use of wet weather tyres.

The dramatic change in conditions did nothing to deter Sims however in his quest for a double win.

Yeovil's Simon Neve held the lead with a climb of 32.36 seconds, his turbo-charged four wheel drive Mitsubishi Evo 6RS, being well suited to the conditions.

But on the last run of the day Sims applied himself to the task and controlled his mount with centimetre precision to take the Anniversary Trophy on a time of 31.97 seconds.

For a full report on the other results see next week's edition.

Hat-trick for Blackburn

CLUB captain Ludovic Blackburn won the Bridport Tennis Club men's singles title for the third successive year by beating last year's runner-up Alex Wood 6-3 in a repeat of the 2011 final in a high quality match.

The recent tournament was played in ideal conditions at Plottingham Playing Fields.

Sanjay Choudhury and Levi Gale had also progressed from the round-robin format to the semi-finals but lost out to Wood and Blackburn in tight matches.

Blackburn watched by members of his family, attributed his success to a consistent serve that got him into a position to hit his trademark forehand winners.

third title

His victory was his third in a row, but he modestly told supporters he was unlikely to match the record 13 titles held by Alan Cash.

Blackburn and his partner are one of the favourites for the men's doubles tournament taking place on Sunday (September 30th).

■ TRIPLE: Ludovic Blackburn receiving his trophy from tournament organiser Martin Walker watched by Alex Wood (left).

BASKETBALL

Bridport off to winning start

Minehead Eagles 53 Bridport Evolution 69

SOMERSET BASKETBALL LEAGUE

A STRONG defensive performance ensured Bridport Evolution Basketball club got off to a winning start in their first game of the season.

The Bridport team, who haven't played a competitive game in nearly two years, battled their way to victory against last season's bottom-of-the-table side.

The team had hoped the match would provide a routine victory but an early tip off, coupled with some early season injury troubles, meant Bridport travelled to Minehead with a depleted squad. A potential stumbling block for Bridport was their lack of height, with only two recognised big men.

Debutant Dave McNiece was able to shoulder the majority of this burden by grabbing 12 rebounds on the night, aided by guard James White who also reached double figures with his boards.

Any hopes Bridport had of easing themselves into the season were quickly dashed in the opening exchanges, with the physical Minehead side committing a series of strong fouls.

The aggressive play continued throughout the night but with the referees keen to let the game flow the Bridport side had to work hard to make space and convert their opportunities, often scoring despite heavy contact from the opposition.

new look team

The new-look Bridport side were able to take an early lead with the help of baskets from player-coach Tom Glover and returning guard Ollie Everitt, and extended that lead further in the second quarter when captain Craig Sorrell rediscovered his three-point shooting touch.

The most serious challenge on the lead came early in the second-half when Minehead finally found a way through Bridport's tough man-to-man defence, and cut the lead to just five.

A quick tactical change, pitting the tenacious White against Minehead's point guard Kovac, quickly put an end to any chance of a comeback for the home side and Bridport cruised to victory.

Coach Glover said: "Obviously it's great to get a win in our first game but I hadn't expected any less from the team. I was pleased to see us working so well together on defence as that is something we have been working on, and I was glad that Minehead weren't able to exploit our lack of height thanks to that tough defence."

"We did show signs of rustiness, which is to be expected, and we did turn the ball over too easily at times, but the points are on the board nonetheless and we have a good momentum going into the next game now."

Bridport travelled to Taunton on Monday night to play a strong Taunton Revolution side that won their opening clash by more than 60 points.

Players and points – Sorrell 26, Glover 18, Everitt 9, Gray 6, McNiece 5, James White 4, Robertshaw 1, King and Altuzarra.

BOWLS ROUND-UP

Distinguished double for Shortland

BRIDPORT BC with Alan Brown
CONGRATULATIONS to Bridport's Barry Shortland who completed a successful season by becoming the Dorset Champion of Champions and also retaining his club's men's singles title.

At the county finals held at Shaftesbury, he beat Daniel Tombery of Alexandra Park 21-19 in the semi final, before producing a more convincing win over Kevin Vincent (Portland Victoria) in the final 21-12.

Meanwhile the club enjoyed good weather for their finals weekend where Shortland retained the men's singles title by beating Mike Smith in the final 22-11 after an uncertain start.

There was some top class bowling in the ladies singles match which went to Melody Watts who beat Pamela Daters 21-12. These two also met in the ladies handicap final which went to 30 ends before Watts beat Daters 26-23.

The men's handicap singles was won by Andy Spiller who beat John Carter 23-14 but Carter had his moment of glory in the two woods when he beat men's captain Keith Brooks 14-7. It was a close contest in the ladies two woods Sue Hosking eventually beating Watts 15-14. The ladies junior cup winner was Joan Griffiths who beat Margaret Fifeild 23-12 and the men's contest was won by Clive Boshier 22-12 over Carter.

Max Dare and Brian Conisbee beat Philip Wilson and Smith to take the men's championship pairs 27-9 and Daters and Sheila Jones beat Thelma Pratt and Therese Castle 26-20 to win the ladies equivalent.

The men's drawn pairs was won on the last end by Carter and Brian Iversen 20-17 over Mike Higman and Smith with Sue Fox and Watts having a more convincing win over Griffiths and Marion Carter 31-14 in the ladies.

LYME REGIS BC with Paul Moffitt

IT'S been another very busy week for the Club with no fewer than six friendlies played and one rained off on Sunday.

The highlight of the week came on Monday a team from Bowls England came to commemorate the club's 75th anniversary.

Amongst their team was Stuart Lake, President; Rosemary Ellman-Brown, Senior Vice President; Adie Lloyd, Junior Vice President; John Tolley and Kath Lloyd, Board members; Gordon Cox, President Bowls Dorset; Gloria Dendy, Dorset Ladies President; Diana Mogg, Past President & Match Secretary.

There were representatives from all over England, in fact not many counties were not represented.

In a closely fought and competitive game, Lyme Regis came out on top by 116-101.

The match was followed by dinner, put on by Sue Wood and her team, and various presentations by Stuart Lake, President.

Lyme managed to win all the other friendlies, some by slim margins but wins nonetheless.

On Saturday it was the end of season Ladies versus the Gents match, always hotly contested but also great fun. On this occasion the gents just squeezed home.

Promising start for Chess Club

BRIDPORT Chess Club started its new season by taking part in the Annual Dorset Chess Jamboree. This is a strong tournament comprising of teams from Dorchester, Yeovil, Weymouth, Wimborne and Purbeck.

Bridport performed well, punching above its weight against the bigger clubs with wins by Robert Wright, Julian May and Jez Brodie to secure second place.

The team were denied top spot with the narrow defeat of county champion Bill Adaway. He was beaten by Dorchester's top ranked player and Candidate Master, Kevin Goater, who proved too strong on the night following a gruelling three-hour tussle.

The club's secretary said: "It was a great night for Bridport Chess and we hope to build on the success to take us into the coming season."

Bridport Chess Club also have a new venue at the Bridport Conservative Club in North Street, meeting every Thursday from 7.45pm onwards, and are always looking for new players of all ages.

Their next fixture is on Thursday, October 4th against the tricky Southbourne in Dorset Division 1.

BEES NEWS

Bees find boot on other foot

WITH STUART BROOM

Parley Sports 3 Bridport Res 2

Dorset Premier Division

AFTER riding their luck last week to take all three points at Tintinhull, Bridport Reserves found the reverse situation when they visited Parley Sports.

Two goals down inside six minutes, Bridport reduced the arrears before the break, and drew level on the hour. Despite battering the Parley goal in the second half they conceded a third six minutes from time to go home empty handed.

"That's football," exclaimed Bees boss Robin Townsend. "Last week we were lucky at Tintinhull, this week the reverse at Parley. Despite conceding twice so early, once we organised ourselves to combat their formation, we absolutely battered them - particularly in the second-half, and deserved a point at least."

Notoriously slow starters, Bridport found themselves in trouble from the start and were a goal down after two minutes with a superb strike from Paul Rideout. He collected a ball played over the top of the Bees defence before producing a stunning volley from 19 yards into Jamie Fry's top corner.

Four minutes later it was 2-0. Ben Bosely raced through and beat the advancing Fry to score despite the attempts of the covering Adam Sturdy who could only help the ball into the net. Rideout almost added to Bridport's woes, but Fry was equal to his effort.

Bridport finally got their act together after 20 minutes and began to get into the game and pulled a goal back midway through the half. Michael Hailu should have converted Jamie Morgan's cross from close in which resulted in a corner from which Roger Cummings headed home.

The second-half belonged to the Bees and they produced chance after chance without converting until Dominic Rowe got up well to head home a free-kick to level the scores on the hour.

Only desperate defending by Parley kept the Bees at bay and Sam Day hit the host's crossbar. Ashley Clarke might have had a penalty with nine minutes left after round-the-keeper, but he tried to stay upright and his cross was blocked when he might have gone down.

Then with just six minutes left Parley snatched the winner when Dan Hiscock's cross shot hit Gary Bulman's knee and wrong footed Fry.

Townsend added: "The players found it difficult to play against their (Parley's) formation initially, but once they had taken on board our instructions they got their act together and pulled the game around."

"It was the classic game of two halves; they had the better of the first and we dominated after the break."

"We should have won on the chances we created but I guess a draw would have been a fair result in a game I think was a good advert for local football."

Bright future for Beaminster cricket

WILL Everitt, Beaminster's 1st XI captain believes the club's future looks bright.

Addressing a bigger than normal room of players, wives and supporters at the annual dinner on Friday night at the Red Lion, he agreed it had been a difficult season with six of their eighteen Division Two fixtures cancelled due to the poor weather.

However five wins from the twelve they played was a fairly respectfully considering the modest resources.

"The future however looks bright with new players coming to join us and hopefully most of the current player's available again next year."

He thanked the players, officials and groundsman Rod Hansford for their help in making his first term as captain so smooth and enjoyable.

The 2nd XI vice-captain Dave Penman reported that what appeared on paper suggested a very poor campaign, they had won six of the ten fixtures they played, being unbeaten at home and that the only reason they finished third bottom and were not in contention for promotion was because they had to scratch two of the matches they lost which cost them 80 points.

"It was just unfortunate the two games fell on days when many were committed to family duties."

He mentioned specifically the bowling of Ade Phillips and Dave Penney's bowling, but congratulated everyone that played and gave their best.

"It's looking good for the future, and I think we will have a good team next year."

He also thanked the scorers, umpires and tea people for all their hard work.

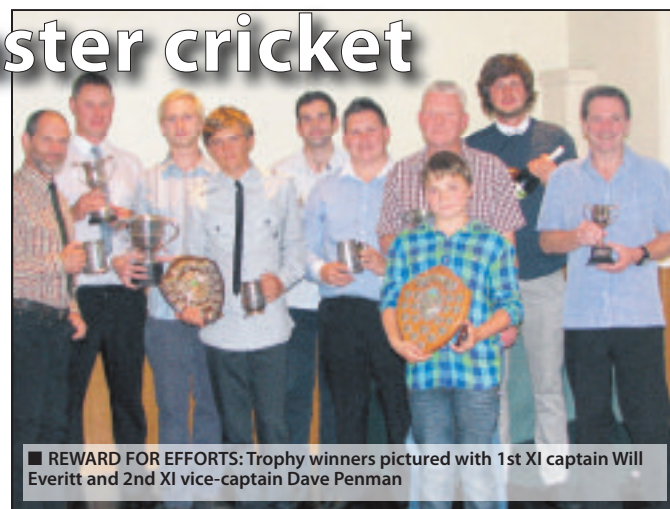

The evening concluded with the presentation of trophies including a new award in memory of former president Brian Newbery who sadly died in August.

With Brian having agreed to the trophy, he had not sadly decided the category before his death, so the committee agreed it would be called the 'Brian Newbery Champagne Moment Award' which would be presented for the outstanding single incident during the season.

The first recipient was Richie Runyard for his 'stunning sprinting, diving, two-handed match winning boundary catch against Shillingstone on August 11th'.

Guest speaker was the VIEW FROM NEWSPAPERS Stuart Broom who spoke about the formation and development of Ross Baker's youth sides, relating it to the Olympic and Paralympic games and trying to encourage more help and support for the scheme from within the town following the Games motto of 'leaving a legacy for the future'.

The clubs chairman Marcus Chambers said: "There was great improvement this season on the back of the previous year, and the results were quite creditable. "We have reason to be optimistic and hope to continue the trend. "With the youth section now beginning to grow we are going for the Club Mark and hope to have that in place by the beginning of the 2014 season."

SCRUM DOWN: RUGBY ROUND-UP

BY KEITH JENKIN

Lestercard too sharp for Minstermen

LAST Saturday the leagues took a rest, and the day was devoted to the playing of local cups. WEYMOUTH were not involved at any level, and PUDDLETOWN too had been given a bye. BRIDPORT should have played WARMINSTER in a cup round but, due to some local arrangement or other, completed the home league fixture against them instead.

BRIDPORT 43 WARMINSTER 3

THE home side dominated this rearranged league fixture, certainly in the early stages, and took the lead before the game was ten minutes old when robust centre Donald Farmer shrugged off one or two defenders to break and score. Out half Lestercard added the extras and Bridport were seven points to the good.

The stand-off increased his side's lead a few minutes later when he kicked a penalty goal, only for Warminster to respond with a similar effort after Bridport had infringed.

This was to be their only success however and, some five minutes before the change round, Bridport spun the ball wide to the right, recycled, switched their attack and prop forward, Liam Poole was on hand to complete what was a flowing move and get over out wide.

The try remained unconverted but Lestercard was on target from the tee just before the break when he converted a try, touched down by skipper Ricky Stubbs. This score gave the home side a deserved 22-3 lead at the halfway stage.

More was to come in the second half. Within fifteen minutes of the restart full-back Dave Cutting made an incursion into the line and found the space to get over himself.

Lestercard was having a good day with the boot and converted this try also. He converted the next one too, touched down by Rob Sullivan who had come on as a replacement prop.

The Cutting try had ensured the bonus point, and Bridport were now away and clear at 36-3 ahead. More was to come before the final whistle, for Farmer ended the game as he had started it, by breaking through in spite of the close attentions of one or two defenders, and crashing over.

Man-of-the-Match Lestercard goaled this try also to take his side to a comfortable and deserved win.

WIMBORNE 67 DORCHESTER 10

WHAT a difference seven days make! A much changed Dorchester side found a home side ready to set the record straight after they had suffered a reversal against the visitors a week earlier.

Wimborne scored four tries in the first 15 minutes to virtually end the game as a contest and subsequently led 34-0 at the change round.

The second-half proved to be little better, as far as Dorchester were concerned, than the first.

Skipper Dave Gower, who had flogged mightily in the traces all game, did score a couple of unconverted tries but, in the main, the one way traffic continued, with Wimborne scoring five second-half tries to complete what was, in fact, a rout.

PREVIEW

THE league programme resumes on Saturday next, with three of the four local clubs having away games at first team level.

BRIDPORT journey to BLANDFORD, a side who were relegated, having found Southern Counties rugby a little rich for their blood last season. They have made a good start to this season's campaign however, and won both their league games so far, but Bridport will certainly have gained confidence from their early season form and will travel with optimism.

DORCHESTER too are on the road. They take on CORSHAM who, although they ended last season very much in the bottom half of the Southern Counties League (South) table, have won both their league games thus far. I do take Dorchester to come ahead in this one, but maybe not by too much.

PUDDLETOWN make the journey to ELLINGHAM & RINGWOOD seconds. Their opponents were relegated from the first division at last season's end, but have won their only league encounter this season.

Puddletown lost last time out for the simple reason that they failed to keep the scoreboard ticking during the periods of the game when they held the ascendancy. They can win this one if they can rectify this frailty.

WEYMOUTH, are still looking for their first league win and entertain OAKMEDIAN. If last season is anything to go by, this game represents their best chance so far of breaking their duck, for their hosts ended last season just one place above the trapdoor.

Oaks have opened their current campaign in a rather mixed fashion, edging a win at home against Wootton Bassett, but being walloped at Trowbridge.

Weymouth have led in both league games so far before losing out at the last. If they can hold their focus, a win for them is very much a possibility.

As to the second sides, Dorchester seconds have a little tester with the visit of East Dorset, recent winners over Puddletown, while Weymouth seconds will have to be at their best if they are to beat visitors North Dorset thirds. Bridport seconds entertain Swanage & Wareham fourths.

FIXTURES: 29th September

Bridport v Blandford (away); Bridport 2nd v Swanage & Wareham 4th; Chard v Cleve; Chard 2nd v Old Sulians; Chard 3rd v Castle Cary 2nd; Crewkerne 2nd v Tor 3rd (away); Dorchester v Corsham (away); Dorchester 2nd v East Dorset (away); Honiton v Bideford (away); Honiton 2nd v Bideford (away); Puddletown v Ellingham & Ringwood 2nd (away); Sidmouth v Bridgwater & Albion; Weymouth v Oakmedians; Weymouth 2nd v North Dorset 3rd; Weymouth 3rd v Blandford 2nd (away).

Missed opportunities results in poor points crop

Bridport 1 Bristol Manor Farm 1

Toolstation Premier Division – att: 148
BRIDPORT missed the chance to keep the pressure on at the top of the Toolstation Western League Premier Division when they were held to a draw by bottom club Bristol Manor Farm.

Having won a point at Wells City in midweek, the Bees were looking to take all three points against a side that had lost six of their eight games before their visit to St Mary's Field.

However after dominating large sections of the game, they failed to hang on to a second half lead, and conceded an equaliser seven minutes from time.

In the first-half Bridport had some good chances with Ryan Dovell firing over twice, whilst Shane Evans put a free header over the top from a corner and then had a long range effort saved by the Manor Farm keeper.

Farm's only response was a Jack Williams shot which forced Sam Filkins into action.

The Bees continued to dictate after the break and might have gone ahead with following a superb four man move. Dovell made a good run down the left before feeding Dan Wise who in turn played in Chris Luke who set up Dan Peart.

by Stuart Broom
stuart@pemedi.co.uk

Unfortunately the midfielder, who is returning back to his best form after a string of injuries, drove his strike from 12 yards past the post.

However Bridport were not to be denied, and minutes later were rewarded with a goal they deserved when Peart crossed to the far post for Dovell to score with a header off the underside of the bar.

Matt Condliffe went close to increasing the advantage almost immediately and sub Ben Clarke shot wide after 72 minutes.

However despite the narrow lead it looked like Bridport would take the points until they failed to clear their lines with just seven minutes left and Lee Edward-Samuels pounced to drive home the equaliser from 10 yards for only Manor Farm's fifth point of the campaign.

Earlier in the week the Bees had taken a useful point at Well City, coming back to equalise through Sam Buckler after conceding an early goal to Rob Dumphrey.

Bridport got into the game after the early shock and Chris Senior and Chris Clarke both went close before Peart brought a great save from Wells keeper Mike Roper.

Ash McGrane struck Filkin's crossbar before the break, but Bridport continued to press and equalised midway through the second half when Evans' header from Wise's free-kick hit the inside of the post and rebounded to Sam Buckler on the penalty spot who volleyed it home.

Sub Matt Condliffe was close with a couple of efforts after this, but Bridport manager Trevor Senior was satisfied with a point.

"I've been really pleased with how we have played in both games. The goal we conceded at Wells was because we didn't go with our runner and they punished us, other than that we put on a good performance, played some good stuff and created lots of chances. It was a good point for us.

"On Saturday I felt it was two points lost. I thought we dominated the game for large parts but unfortunately it was a case again of not taking our chances. We passed the ball around nicely but just lacked that cutting edge.

"They had spells of possession but never really looked like scoring, and we just failed to clear one chance and they scored. We had enough chances to have been further ahead by then but you have to see games out and keep it tight. We should have beaten them.

Once we scored the goal I thought that would be enough for us to go on and win it. It wasn't route one, both teams were passing the ball around and for the neutral it was a good game to watch.

"They play some decent football and are not the worst side we've played."
